

RUSSIA REJECTS NEUTRAL EFFORT IN BERLIN CRISIS

Urges Security Council Throw Out Issue; Calls For Previous Agreement

PARIS, Oct. 13 (AP)—Russia rejected tonight efforts of the six neutrals to mediate the Berlin crisis, it was authoritatively reported. The Security Council was called to meet Friday, to take up the issue once more.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinskiy handed the Kremlin's answer to Jean A. Bramuglia, of Argentina, council president on the Berlin question.

The Russian reply still was a secret officially. But an authoritative Western source said its main points were:

- 1. Throw the Berlin case out of the Security Council.
- 2. Go back to the Moscow agreement of Aug. 30, and renew negotiations.

The informal agreement in principle of Aug. 30 with Marshal Stalin and Foreign Minister Molotov provided for Soviet zone currency for all Berlin under four-power supervision, and lifting the blockade. Later negotiations on details broke down in Berlin now.

GOING BACK TO THE Aug. 30 agreement meant a Russian retreat from the additional demands made by Soviet Marshal Vasily Sokolovsky in Berlin that the Russians control all traffic to Berlin. Western spokesmen did not comment on whether this was their interpretation, however.

An authoritative source declared the Russian answer put the Western powers back where they were. He added, "I imagine some of the 'little six' who have been attempting to mediate the situation will be disappointed."

The Russians' answer also signified that they would probably continue their boycott of discussions on Berlin before the Security Council. Bramuglia who called the Security Council session for 3 p. m. (9 a. m. Pottstown time) Friday, was pessimistic. Asked if he would present any resolutions or other aspects of the case, he replied:

"No. It is the council itself and every member" will express his opinion after he has studied all the details with all calm and serenity. The Security Council will meet at 3 p. m. tomorrow to discuss alleged violations of the Palestine truce.

After teaching in East and North Coventry rural schools she was married 60 years ago. Her husband died in 1931.

MRS. TYSON HAD been in failing health for the past three years, but had been bedfast only one month.

Airport Hangs on Pottstown's Generosity Tonight

ROUTE 422 GLASGOW ROAD MANATOWNY ST. Your dollars will make this dream come true. This artist's drawing shows what the Pottstown Municipal Airport will look like after $12,000 in Federal and State money is spent on it. Your bucks, $150 of them, are needed to get the big jackpot.

Tonight is A-Night. The Pottstown Municipal airport will ride or fall on your shoulders tonight.

The last raise has been called Pottstown's cards are falling to the aid.

The citizens tonight will show whether they are people of vision or care-taking, no-morning realists.

For tonight the citizens of Pottstown have a chance to buy an airport. Theirs is the chance to be a vital part of their town's development.

With their dollars they can force a new vision in the town of Pottstown's future.

Or they can let opportunity, when it comes knocking again, slip through their parted fingers.

IN PIONEER DAYS when the people of a town wanted a post office, a jail or a city hall, they joined in and built it. It belonged to the town.

You can't grade runways yourself. But your buck counts. Just as surely as the pioneers, you can build your town an airport.

Tonight a Boy Scout will knock at your door. He won't give you any salesmen's line. He won't try to talk you into a donation for the airport.

All he'll say will be "Got a buck for the Airport Fund?"

The rest will be up to you. Pottstown's airport hangs on an unbuttoned hip pocket.

The scouts will be there — all over the town — be assured of that. But if you don't give, they will begin their rounds.

MORE THAN 150 scouts will participate in the drive. They will be sacrificing their free time — good, relaxed time after supper — for two or more hours of tramping the streets in any kind of weather.

Their work will not be compensated. No compensation except that, someday, when the town has a few smooth runways stretching out across the Stowe plateau, they will realize that they have done their part.

For these scouts are not idle young men. They have been trained in citizenship. Their responsibility towards their town extends much farther than many an adult.

Robert C. Borneman, district scout executive, said he has asked all scouts to wear uniforms tonight. Some may not, however, he added. But if you see a scout, identify the scout by the "Port Sport" tags he will be carrying to distribute to every donor.

The troops—13 of them—will meet at their regular meeting places at 7 o'clock for final briefing before starting the campaign.

THE STOWE troop will not scout tonight because of an interfering

High school affair. They will collect funds next Wednesday night.

But the Stowe scout ranks will be filled by members of Troop 6 of Troop 6 Reformed church. Troop 6 became the last to sign for the drive when 75 percent of its members indicated at a meeting last night they will be on hand.

Each of the Pottstown troops will meet one or two members of the Pilot club of Pottstown at the meeting place. The members' autos will provide transportation in far parts in each of the borough's dozen campaign districts.

After the door-to-door canvass, the scouts will report back to the troop meeting place and pool funds. Either the Pilot club member or troop scoutmaster will deliver the donations to The Mercury office.

Scouts will be carrying "Port Sport" tags, $423.55 out of the necessary $1500 is needed to clinch $72,000 in State and Federal funds.

BUT BEFORE THE scouts go home to bed, they can look forward to one treat. The club member with each troop will take the boys to the nearest eatery and treat them to hot dogs and cones.

As advance notice for the drive, the Schuk Baking company sound truck will tour the borough between 3 and 7 o'clock this afternoon, broadcasting an appeal.

In addition to the club members announced yesterday as "troop" (Continued on Page Twenty six)

Titles Search Next Step In Street Property Fight

A complete search of the titles of the Franklin street properties abutting the new section of Washington street between Prospect and Wilson streets will be made to determine if the borough has built half the street on private property, Borough Manager Dow I. Sears said yesterday.

Sears explained that the problem is a legal one. "All I know about it is what appeared in The Mercury," he declared. He added, however, that Borough Engineer George F. Shaner who laid out the street lines, assured him the line was correct.

"I am inclined to agree," Sears went on, "since the extension lies in a direct line with the rest of the street."

Nine residents of Franklin street who have received notices to curio the rear of their property on Washington street and who will be assessed for the Washington street sewer contend the street was built partially on their property.

Through C. Edmund Wells, their attorney they have notified Borough Solicitor Carroll I. Rutter of their claims. They maintain the borough acted unlawfully in constructing the street without obtaining releases from them or without condemning the property and reimbursing them for it.

WELLS AFTER a search, told Rutter that the land for the street, he said, was owned by the Brookside Homes Inc., ran only to the center line of the street. The remainder he averred is built on his clients' land.

Sears said a title search should clear up the problem.

"If we are wrong," he remarked, "the borough will have to make good for the mistake."

Rutter said the problem was something to be decided only after investigation.

"I have nothing further to say at the present time," he added.

Meanwhile, Wells, who has asked for a conference with borough officials on the question, said he had received notice that the borough is investigating but that no date had been set for a meeting.

WITH A DEMOCRATIC Congress and president, Mr. Truman said, there will be "the right kind of unity" in the country unit for social advances the party pioneered in support of farm and housing programs, labor's rights of collective bargaining, expanded social security, education and medical care.

"Forever" the President said in an address prepared for delivery here in the municipal auditorium, "we will be unified in our efforts to preserve our prosperity and to spread its benefits equally over all groups in the nation."

"With such unity as this, we can fulfill our God-given responsibility in leading the world to peace."

Today the President said, the (Continued on Page Six)

Airport Fund Zooms Past $900 Mark

Getting a flying start for tonight's big push by 13 Pottstown area Boy Scout troops, the Airport Fund netted $93 yesterday, nearly double Tuesday's total.

The scouts should be able to get to work with $1000 already in the till, since the total last night read $927.45.

With the scouts it will be a good turn for a good return—$72,000 that will be handed the borough for improving the municipal airport as soon as the last $1500 is collected.

While the scouts will attempt to contact most borough residents out-of-towners who may be missed in the canvass but who are interested in Pottstown progress were urged to mail in their contribution to The Mercury.

BOROUGH RESIDENTS not at home when the scouts call were invited to mail their bucks, too. They can swell their favorite troop's total simply by marking its number on the envelope. Or they can leave a blank and give all the scouts credit.

Competition in the fund-raising drive promised to be keen tonight, as the leader of one troop promised his men could make a "Port Sport" of the "meanest man in town."

Borough, Stowe Settle Glasgow Sewer Costs

Pottstown and Stowe last night reached an amicable agreement to settle the costs of the Glasgow street sewer.

The borough will collect the remaining bills from Stowe residents for their share of the sewer line, while West Pottsgrove township will pay $8000 toward the total bill.

After 60 days the borough will turn over the uncollected bills to Stowe, and the township will reimburse the borough for the remainder of Stowe's share of the expense.

The ward executive said he reached last night by the West Pottsgrove township commissioners and a group of borough officials that included the highway and sewer committee, the borough engineer, manager and burgess.

The total cost of the 4103 foot sewer line which extends from High and Glasgow to Berks, a Glasgow street with 337 feet of Walnut street in Pottstown, was $42,171.66.

Borough men did the job, and Borough Manager Dow I. Sears, commenting on the costs last night, declared:

We are very well satisfied with the results. Based on recent contract prices, this would have cost $45,152.50.

Of the total cost Stowe was billed for $18,934.13 and Pottstown, for $23,237.53.

ORIGINALLY, it was planned that each municipality would pay half the costs. But charges for extra depths in some sections had to be figured, as well as the cost of extra-large pipe in some spots and the bill ($3436) for the line serving properties east of Glasgow street, in the vicinity of Walnut street, all in Pottstown.

If the additional $4536 is not figured in the total, the costs for the township and for the borough are within several hundred dollars of equality.

Before connections could be made into the new line which was completed in 1947 the borough sent out bills to Stowe and Pottstown.

Weatherman Says Fair; Weather Persists Unfair

The weatherman has been living in hope. How long he can go on is anybody's guess.

Last night marked his third consecutive daily forecast that "tomorrow will be fair." The last two days he proved disappointing.

For what? It is worth that the prediction again for tomorrow instead of being fair today, will be partly cloudy, he said.

Yesterday's clouds also predicted fair at one point produced a rain shower last night.

Climbing back to the road, Neiman was unable to obtain help because telephone service had been cut. He hailed a passing truck from the Berks County Casket company and asked the driver to notify State police at Collegeville.

A second truck was stopped and Neiman asked that driver to notify the Reading company to halt any trains that would be using the line. The Lower Frederick Fire company (Continued on Page Six)

Dewey Pledges Strong Leadership To Replace 'Confusion, Despair'

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 13 (AP)—Governor Thomas E. Dewey told a cheering crowd here today "the time has come for national leadership which will measure up to our devotion to peace."

The Republican candidate for president pledged if he is elected in November, to free the government of "shackles of confusion and defeatism and despair" which he attributed to the Truman administration.

Dewey spoke in civic center park to a crowd which Police Captain Tom Webb estimated at 20,000 persons.

The New York governor brought his campaign here after a round of speeches in other Oklahoma communities. He still had several political talks ahead of him tonight.

Dewey got a burst of applause when he called for an administration which will back up its representatives at international peace conferences.

AND HE GOT HIS usual hand in criticizing those who would "dismiss the whole problem" of dealing with Communism "by causing it a Red herring."

"I suppose, of course, that is the only reaction of those whose policies abroad have seemed neither fish nor flesh nor good Red herring," Dewey added.

Earlier in Tulsa, where Dewey drew the most enthusiastic welcome and the biggest crowds of his campaign, he told an applauding audience:

"It's time we started leading from strength instead of from weakness and confusion."

In SAPULPA the governor and Mrs. Dewey left the train and had lunch at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hutt.

Dewey called them "the greatest folks in all the world" in talking to (Continued on Page Six)

Huge Tents Arrive To House Dog Show

Pottstown's first dog show got its tents yesterday.

A Philadelphia concern trucked the giant big-tops to the island in Manatoway Park yesterday and, partially completed, erection of one of the 200-foot shelters.

The show's four tents all will be up by dark today and rizes will be marked out tomorrow.

The show, sponsored by the Valley Forge Kennel club, will begin at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Final judging should be completed by about 4:30 p. m.

Today a park-hired bulldozer will grade the approach to the bridge leading from the parking area just north of King street to the park island.

Yesterday the half-dozen light poles near the band rostrum were removed to erect wires for the Schulz Baking company sound truck, over which the show will be announced.

The show exhibiting 491 dogs, will be monitored by a representative of the American Kennel Club.

Truck Drops 25 Feet, Driver Escapes

Snapping two high-tension electric poles as it went, a huge trailer truck plunged down a 25-foot embankment into the Reading railroad tracks near Schwenkville yesterday evening, scattering 12 tons of bricks onto the Perkomen branch right-of-way.

The truck's plunge disrupted utility service in a large section of the Upper Perkomen Valley for several hours. State police, two fire companies and three repair crews were needed to clear away the wreckage.

Driver of the ten-and-a-half-ton trailer truck was Clarence R. Neiman, 26, of Sanatoga, who was imprisoned in the cab of the truck when it overturned. The gasoline tank, holding 100 gallons, was ripped apart.

Miraculously escaping death, Neiman kicked out a window and crawled to safety, head first. He said he was unhurt.

NEIMAN TOLD Collegeville State police he was traveling south on Route 29 (Gravel Pike) at about 3 a. m., enroute from Reading to New York.

As he rounded a sharp curve at Deepm about a mile north of Schwenkville, he declared, a sedan traveling in the opposite direction loomed up ahead on the wrong side of the highway.

Veering sharply to avert a collision, the truck missed the sedan but then went out of control. Neiman drove his huge truck through six guard rails and he heavy wire cable. It snapped off the electric poles before plunging to the track where it broke several railroad poles.

The electric poles carried 33,000-volt wires of the Philadelphia Electric company which feed power to the area.

Meanwhile the other car swerved, hitting the shoulder on the left side of the road but continued on with out stopping.

The heavy truck, with Neiman still riding in the cab overturned. The crushed vehicle and the bricks were removed from the tracks before the first Philadelphia train from Allentown arrived. The train was delayed only five minutes.

Government Troops Fight to Lift Siege Of Manchurian Base

PEIPING, Oct. 13 (AP)—Two government columns today were reported fighting to lift the siege of Chihshien by attacking Communist lines south of that big Manchurian base.

Free accounts said these troops, apparently fresh landed, were moving up from the port of Hulstao, closely supported by government warplanes. Hulstao is 30 miles south of Chihshien.

The relief columns were operating on both sides of the railway linking the two cities. Other government forces out of Mukden have been reported fighting north of Chihshien.

IT IS ON THE Chihshien front that the Communists are trying to sever all land lines between North China and Manchuria.

The lines now are cut, but the government said two days ago that an alternate route to isolated Mukden had been opened by the recapture of the port of Yingkow, across Liaotung bay from Hulstao.

Despite this government statement, some Peiping press dispatches still were reporting "Yingkow's capture imminent."

Official quarters said they had no news which would clarify the situation at Yingkow.

(Nanking said the government held the initiative in Manchuria on the basis of pro-government reports reaching the capital.)

(On the north central front, Tai-Yuan, capital of Shensi province, still stands firm under constant Communist assault, said Quentun Roosevelt on his return to Shanghai.

(ROOSEVELT, a CHINESE airline official, said that when he left Taiyuan there had been no penetration of the city's defenses. The north air field still was being used by supply planes.

(Pro-government press reports to Nanking said the national garrison at Sian had started "limited offensives" against the Communists in central Shensi. Sian is the capital of Shensi and has been closely pressed by Communist troops swinging down from the northeast.)

Delegates to Lutheran Church Convention Vole Budget of 10 Million for 1950-51

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13 (AP)—The 576 delegates to the 16th annual biennial convention of the United Lutheran church in America voted today a $10,000,000 budget for 1950 and 1951 but turned down a proposal to increase the 1949 budget by $1,500,000.

The approved budget of $4,530,000 for 1950 and $5,220,000 for 1951 was the largest in the organization's 30-year history.

The proposal to boost the 1949 budget of $3,000,000—approved in the 1948 convention at Cleveland—came from Ernest P. Scott, lay delegate and Cleveland businessman.

But there was strong argument against setting a flat increase of $1,500,000 and the Rev. Henry H. Bagger of Lancaster, offered a substitute amendment asking: "Permit the $3,000,000 1949 apportionment to stand but challenge the synods to overpay their apportionment by at least the extent of their 1948 achievement."

I repeat that all power is a trust; that we are accountable for its exercise; that from the people and for the people all springs, and all must exist.—Benjamin Disraeli.

No Working Data

THE sad predicament the borough faces itself in — that of opening a street on private property — points up the need for more topographical records at borough hall.

It is hard to believe, but up to a few years ago the borough of Pottstown never had a plot plan of the municipality. Borough officials never could tell who owned Pottstown property, what the size of property was, unless they'd go to a great deal of trouble and expense to get the information from Montgomery county.

That lack was remedied by Borough Manager Dow I. Sears.

But to this day — and the borough of Pottstown is almost 200 years old — this municipality does not own a complete record of elevations and grades.

If engineering data is needed for laying out streets, or for construction of sewers or water lines, the borough must pay for the information.

Years ago a now departed borough engineer wanted to sell Pottstown the original elevations for a sum said by legend to have been $50,000 to $75,000. The borough fathers never went for the purchase.

So the borough still must pay for the surveying.

Borough Manager Sears remedied the lack of a plot plan by getting a complete set of maps from Norristown. Now it behooves the borough to enrich its archives with other necessary engineering data.

And We Quote:

TO ATTAIN the good life, an aged sage once advised one who sought his guidance, "Always wind up your watch and verify your quotations." Everyone who has ever misquoted a famous line in print, and been caught at it, knows how right he was.

We have verified the above quotation, incidentally, as being from a speech delivered by the Earl of Rosebery on Nov. 23, 1897.

The reason we can be so exact about it is that Macmillan has just issued "The Home Book of Proverbs, Maxims and Familiar Phrases" (2957 pp., $20), compiled by Burton Stevenson, the indefatigable compiler of "The Home Book of Quotations," etc.

There is less excuse than ever for anyone to write it "A poor thing, but mine own," or "Screw your courage to the sticking point," now that this nearly six-pound book is at hand with the correct versions ("An ill-favoured thing, sir," and "sticking-place").

As H. W. Fowler says in his delightful "Modern English Usage," however, misquoting of phrases that are important apart from their authors isn't so bad.

It seems hardly likely, for instance, that "Praise from Sir Hubert is praise indeed" will ever go back, in popular usage, to its original form in Thomas Morton's play "A Cure for the Heartache" (1797): "Approbation from Sir Hubert Stanley is praise indeed." Even those who misquote famous authors — Shakespeare, say — have at least the defense that Shakespeare misquoted Julius Caesar when he made him say, "Et tu, Brute!" According to Suetonius, Caesar said, in Greek, "You too, my child?"

More bothersome even than misquoting famous lines is quoting equally famous lines that never got said.

That beautiful job of oratory attributed to Daniel Webster, ending with the assertion that he would "never vote one cent from the public treasury to place the Pacific coast one inch nearer Boston than it is now," wasn't uttered by Webster, Bernard de Voto states unequivocally in his "Across the Wide Missouri."

A quotation of enviable aptness is attributed to Voltaire: "History is the tread of wooden shoes going up the stairs, and the patter of satin slippers coming down." Maybe Voltaire still said it, but a search to verify it recently led to a dead end when Dr. Bruce Hooper, professor of history at Harvard, who once used the quotation, said he couldn't locate it.

"There is no less wit and invention in applying rightly a thought one finds in a book than in being the first author of that thought," wrote Pierre Bayle in his Dictionary in 1695.

There is a whole lot more danger, though. To be on the safe side you might just as well get some original of your own, and leave it to everybody else to misquote it.

That lack was remedied by Borough Manager Dow I. Sears.

But to this day — and the borough of Pottstown is almost 200 years old — this municipality does not own a complete record of elevations and grades.

If engineering data is needed for laying out streets, or for construction of sewers or water lines, the borough must pay for the information.

Years ago a now departed borough engineer wanted to sell Pottstown the original elevations for a sum said by legend to have been $50,000 to $75,000. The borough fathers never went for the purchase.

So the borough still must pay for the surveying.

Borough Manager Sears remedied the lack of a plot plan by getting a complete set of maps from Norristown. Now it behooves the borough to enrich its archives with other necessary engineering data.

And We Quote:

TO ATTAIN the good life, an aged sage once advised one who sought his guidance, "Always wind up your watch and verify your quotations." Everyone who has ever misquoted a famous line in print, and been caught at it, knows how right he was.

We have verified the above quotation, incidentally, as being from a speech delivered by the Earl of Rosebery on Nov. 23, 1897.

The reason we can be so exact about it is that Macmillan has just issued "The Home Book of Proverbs, Maxims and Familiar Phrases" (2957 pp., $20), compiled by Burton Stevenson, the indefatigable compiler of "The Home Book of Quotations," etc.

There is less excuse than ever for anyone to write it "A poor thing, but mine own," or "Screw your courage to the sticking point," now that this nearly six-pound book is at hand with the correct versions ("An ill-favoured thing, sir," and "sticking-place").

As H. W. Fowler says in his delightful "Modern English Usage," however, misquoting of phrases that are important apart from their authors isn't so bad.

It seems hardly likely, for instance, that "Praise from Sir Hubert is praise indeed" will ever go back, in popular usage, to its original form in Thomas Morton's play "A Cure for the Heartache" (1797): "Approbation from Sir Hubert Stanley is praise indeed." Even those who misquote famous authors — Shakespeare, say — have at least the defense that Shakespeare misquoted Julius Caesar when he made him say, "Et tu, Brute!" According to Suetonius, Caesar said, in Greek, "You too, my child?"

More bothersome even than misquoting famous lines is quoting equally famous lines that never got said.

That beautiful job of oratory attributed to Daniel Webster, ending with the assertion that he would "never vote one cent from the public treasury to place the Pacific coast one inch nearer Boston than it is now," wasn't uttered by Webster, Bernard de Voto states unequivocally in his "Across the Wide Missouri."

A quotation of enviable aptness is attributed to Voltaire: "History is the tread of wooden shoes going up the stairs, and the patter of satin slippers coming down." Maybe Voltaire still said it, but a search to verify it recently led to a dead end when Dr. Bruce Hooper, professor of history at Harvard, who once used the quotation, said he couldn't locate it.

"There is no less wit and invention in applying rightly a thought one finds in a book than in being the first author of that thought," wrote Pierre Bayle in his Dictionary in 1695.

Neuman, a former Navy man who was taken a prisoner by the Germans, said after the accident: "I knew I was in a tight spot when I was trapped in the cab and gasoline started to trickle over me. However, if I was able to get out of a German prison camp, I could get out of the cab and kicked out a window."

GEORGE FILMAN, South Pottstown, the owner of the truck arrived with a tow truck. He estimated the loss of the truck and its cargo at $15,000.

In the meantime, crews from the Reading company, the Philadelphia Electric company, and the Bell Telephone company, were rushed to the scene to restore service.

Under direction of State troopers, the truck, bricks and poles were cleared from the tracks, under portable floodlights set up by the Lower Frederick and Spring Mount Fire companies.

Power to Zieglerville, Perkiomenville and Green Lane was cut off entirely for two hours, the Philadelphia Electric company reported. Service to Pennsburg, East Greenville and Red Hill also was affected.

Architect's Sketch of Proposed School for Limerick Township

The proposed new $210,000 Limerick township school, the architect's drawing for which is shown above, will be the center of a special public meeting in the Limerick fire hall tonight at 7:45 o'clock.

Held in conjunction with the Limerick Home and School league meeting, it will give Limerick residents opportunity to have their say about the bond issue needed to finance the elementary school.

Linfield PTA Approves Plan for School in Limerick Township; Meeting Tonight

Advocates of the consolidated elementary school proposed for Limerick township were awaiting with confidence yesterday the public meeting about the $210,000 bond issue that will be held in the Limerick fire hall tonight at 7:45 o'clock.

Their increased optimism was a result of action Tuesday night by the Linfield PTA in going on record as favoring the new school planned for a site midway between Limerick and Linfield.

Opposition to the bond issue proposal, which will be settled Election Day, since residents there do not have to send their children to the four one-room schools in the township which would be outmoded by the new school.

Tonight's meeting will be addressed by A. M. Kulp, county superintendent of schools, who also will speak at a public meeting in the Linfield fire hall Tuesday night at 7:45 o'clock. Kulp is a strong advocate of the proposed new school.

The public meeting in Limerick will be held in conjunction with the

Evangelism Program Planned in Churches Of Chester County

A program of evangelism will be held in Chester county churches from Oct. 25 to Oct. 31. It was announced Tuesday night at a meeting of the North Branch, Christian Endeavor, in the Pine Swamp Evangelical church.

The Rev. Paul O. Jackson, of Providence, R. I., will be the evangelist.

A Bible lecturer and interpreter, he will speak in St. John's Reformed church, Phoenixville, Oct. 25; Coventryville Methodist church, Oct. 26; Windsor Baptist church, Eagle, Oct. 27; and in Brownback's Evangelical and Reformed church, Oct. 28-31.

Special musical programs have been arranged. At Tuesday night's meeting the Rev. John Bisher, pastor of the Pine Swamp Evangelical church, spoke on "Stewardship."

THE BANNER for the best attendance during the month was awarded to the East Nantmeal Baptist church.

Lee House, county Christian Endeavor president, spoke at the Fall Planning Conference, to be held Saturday beginning at 10 a. m. in the West Grove Methodist church. All day sessions will be held.

Miss Hilda Hertzler led the devotions Tuesday night, and John Simon, president of the North Branch C. E., was in charge of the business session.

The next meeting, Nov. 9, in the Parkersburg Baptist church, will be a social night. A literature display will be made for the C. E. members.

U. S. Model Farm Construction Viewed By Future Farmers

Twenty-two North Coventry High school Future Farmers of America and four escorts Tuesday saw the government develop a farm under their very eyes.

The group was one of 5000 who witnessed the Chester county Soil Conservation district office move machinery and men onto a veteran's 106-acre farm north-west of Coatesville and make a model farm of it.

Among other State officials, Gov. James H. Duff spoke on conservation. The project will be completed today, it is hoped.

PROJECTS INCLUDING contouring fields, reforestation, cleaning of woodlands, seeding 30 acres in grain, placement of tile for drainage of land, making of ten acres of pasture, construction of terraces and a pond near the house and heavy fertilization of all the land are contemplated.

The veteran's farm was selected by a committee.

Those who took the trip were George Kreps, Robert Evans, Donald Lloyd, William Brewer, Leonard Bauman, John Salameck, William Tyson, Heber McGowan, James Jones, William Jones, Charles Murray, Kenneth Read, Harry McKelvey, William Salameck, Lina Keeler, Richard Goss, George Shuman, Richard Yocum, William McKee, Francis Beckway, Carl Bean and Robert Day.

Neal Burner, Norco agricultural teacher, M. Miller Long, Alfred High and Kent High provided transportation.

Reading Choral Society To Sing at 'Y' Meeting

The Reading Choral Society, of Philadelphia, will present an hour-long musical program at the meeting of the YMCA Executives and Foremen's Club of Pottstown and vicinity in the YMCA Friday night, James P. Baird, general secretary, announced yesterday.

Baird said the group of 45 men and women all are employed by the Reading Railroad company. They will travel to Pottstown Friday night and will appear after the business session of the club.

The group meets at 6:30 o'clock in the YMCA assembly hall.

State Potato Crop Sets All-Time Mark; Tobacco Output Also in 'Bumper' Class

HARRISBURG, Oct. 13 (AP)—Pennsylvania's 1948 potato crop set a new all-time record average yield of 185 bushels per acre and is now definitely in the "bumper class," the State Department of Agriculture said today.

At the same time, the department said the latest Federal-State survey showed tobacco farmers reported the second highest yield ever known in the State putting that crop also in the "bumper class."

However, the apple, pear and buckwheat estimates were forced down by adverse weather conditions during September but the grape crop will be better than average, the surveys revealed.

The estimated yield per acre for potatoes jumped 10 bushels. The current season has been regarded as an excellent potato year with September's dry weather checking growth but keeping down the spread of blight, the department said.

The total potato crop estimate is now 29,165,000 bushels, an advance of 1,090,000 over Sept. 1 and more than two million over the past year, grown on the same acreage.

The 1948 tobacco crop is now estimated at 61,583,000 pounds, an advance of 1,900,000 over Sept. 1, the largest since 1920 and three million pounds over the 1947 crop. The yield per acre is 1600 pounds, only 30

Local Navy Club Enlists Five More Members

Five more members were signed up in the Pottstown Navy club, members were told Tuesday night at their meeting in the home of George A. Amole Post 47, American Legion.

The new men bring the club's membership to 30, said Commander Vernon Anderson, who was in charge of last night's meeting.

A special meeting will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the American Legion home, with Wayne Burkholder, of Lebanon, immediate past State commander of the Navy club of the United States, the guest speaker.

Burkholder will urge the new club on in its membership campaign.

Dr. Weber Tells Lions Impressions of Germany

The Rev. Dr. Gustave W. Weber, director of religious studies at The Hill school, told Pottstown Lions club members of the poverty in post-war Germany, as he addressed a club meeting in the Elks home Tuesday night.

Dr. Weber described the trip he made the past Summer with a group of students to southern Germany where they worked on the reconstruction of a community.

During the bus mass meeting, Edward J. Sweeney reported that thousands of the Senior High school students had been sold for the club's members, shown Oct. 29.

The Junior High school orchestra and band will play as part of the program, he said.

Lions President William A. White took charge of Tuesday night's meeting, at which 54 club members were present.

Russian Churches To Be Sent Bibles

Members of the Eureka Bible class of Zion's Reformed church voted Tuesday night to send four Bibles to Russian churches.

The decision to purchase the Bibles came at the monthly meeting of the group held in the home of Lyle Landis, 157 North Hanover street. The 14 members present were under the direction of William Morrell, president of the class.

It also was voted to hold an all-church contest using two simulated football teams. Chae Rushon and Warden Bechtel were named captains.

As a result of a decision made at the meeting, the class will attend church in a body Sunday to celebrate Luther's Sunday.

Two guests, G. Bortman and H. S. Schaeffer, were present at the meeting.

New Trial Granted In Accident Suit

By Staff Correspondent
NORRISTOWN, Oct. 13 — A new trial has been granted by Judge George C. Conover in the case of George C. Conover and Mary E. Conover, Upper Hanover, against Joseph I. Style, trading as Style Parlor Frame company, Green Lane, according to an opinion handed down today.

A jury in Civil court returned verdicts of $325 for Conover and $500 for Mrs. Conover when the trespass action was first tried in September. Following this verdict, Style filed an appeal.

The suit was based on a collision on the night of Dec. 21, 1945 on Main street, Pennsburg, involving a car operated by Mrs. Conover and a truck of the defendant firm.

In granting the new trial, the court ruled that the verdict was against the evidence produced.

The Conovers asked for damages totaling $25,000.

Mrs. Conover was injured in the accident.

Boy Burned by Tractor Holds Own at Hospital

Suffering from burns of the legs and hands received when he was pinned under a running tractor, Leon Meyers, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Meyers, Schwenksville RD 1, remained with condition "unchanged" at Memorial hospital, authorities reported yesterday.

Meyers suffered second degree burns of the legs and hands Tuesday when the tractor he was driving toppled and pinned him to the ground. A quick-thinking school bus driver, Clarence West, Shanesville, pulled him from the wreck and tore his burning clothes from his body.

West left his bus-load of children to rush Meyers to the hospital. The pupils were a half hour late for their classes.

Get a DU PONT ANTI-FREEZE today!

Why it's wise to have your serviceman inspect the cooling system before putting in anti-freeze.

YOU BUY anti-freeze to protect your motor from a freeze-up and to help it run more efficiently by keeping the cooling system free from rust. If anti-freeze leaks out, what have you got? NO protection . . . maybe a ruined engine block. Heavy expense, your car laid up. (And you've lost your anti-freeze.)

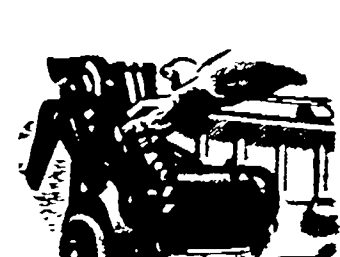

So, before installing anti-freeze, have the cooling system gone over. No repairs may be needed—but even a simple inspection is worth what it may cost. Here's what a cooling system inspection should include:

1. INSPECT RADIATOR—If it's rusted, it should be drained and cleaned. (Du Pont Cooling System Cleaner is one of the best for the job.)

2. CHECK FOR LEAKS—Radiator hose, clamps, pump, and cylinder head bolts should be tight. Your serviceman has tools and know-how to make repairs.

3. CHECK FAN, BOLT AND HEATER—Shipping bolts should be adjusted—replaced if worn. Heater hoses should drain properly and not trap air.

4. PUT IN ANTI-FREEZE—A "Zerex" "Zerex" chart shows amount needed. Radiator tag identifies anti-freeze warns against draining. "Zerex" is the only anti-freeze.

Russians Ask 15 Nations To Quit Berlin Missions

BERLIN, Oct. 13 (AP)—The Russians have proposed that 15 nations having military missions in Berlin close them and withdraw from the city, the official Soviet press disclosed today.

The missions—little embassies—are accredited to the four-power Allied Control council. They look after the interests of their countries in Berlin.

Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovskiy, the Soviet commander, broached the subject to the Western military governors, the Soviet press said. He contended that because the Allied Control council "no longer exists" the missions should be abandoned.

The Russian report said the Western governments had not disclosed their attitude toward the proposal.

The control council has not met since March 20, when the Russians took a walk. The Western powers have not recognized their act as dissolving the council. The past month the four military governors met in the control council building for technical negotiations on the Berlin crisis.

NATIONS WITH MISSIONS here include Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, China, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Greece, India, Luxembourg, and The Netherlands, Norway, Poland, South Africa and Yugoslavia.

The city magistrat (executive) was the scene today of a sit-down strike by a Communist official who refused to accept dismissal from his post. He was Waldemar Schmidt, chief of the city government's labor department, until the city council fired him the past week.

The magistrat majority moved from the city hall in the Soviet sector to a meeting place in the British sector when Schmidt ignored orders to leave the meeting.

The city assembly moved to the British sector for protection against Communist demonstrators some time ago, but the magistrat had returned the city hall for its meetings.

French Reds' Wave Of Strikes Hinted Ebbing

PARIS, Oct. 13 (AP)—There were signs tonight that the Communist hit-and-run strike campaign was ebbing.

The nation's coal mines were still idle for the 10th day however, and France's ports were tied up by a 24-hour dockers' strike.

Throughout the nation rail workers were going back to work after sporadic walkouts. They had won some minor wage concessions, but were faced by a government threat to fire men who kept others from working.

Gen. Charles de Gaulle of France had objected to a London headquarters. The informant said, however, that the decision to set up a joint land, sea and air base in France was taken before De Gaulle had declared at a news conference on Oct. 1 that it is wrong to center in London the defense of Europe.

Maria Montez (above) filed suit yesterday in Hollywood to collect $38,000 she claims producer Seymour Nebenzal owes her as back salary. The actress said that she was promised $100,000 for playing a role in the film "Atlantis." She said she received only $68,000.

Democrats Lead In Returns From Alaska Election

JUNEAU, Alaska, Oct. 13 (AP)—Election returns gave Democrats increasing leads today following the heaviest voting in Alaska's history.

Leading Democrats were quick to cite their pre-election slogan "As Alaska goes, so goes the nation." Territorial Secretary Lew Williams made a sure election statement claiming Alaska results during the past 20 years have paralleled closely the national trend a month later Williams estimated the total vote at close to 20,000 compared with 16,979 in 1946.

The increased postwar population plus increased military expenditures in the territory, were complicating factors in the election's significance.

Dismantling of Plants In Germany Is Delayed

LONDON, Oct. 13 (AP)—The United States was reported today to have won British-French assent to a moratorium on removal of important industrial plants from Germany.

There was no official confirmation, but diplomats said both countries have agreed to halt the dismantling process pending a new review of the part Germany could play in Europe's economic recovery.

The French foreign minister announced in Paris that Foreign Minister Robert Schuman had recognized "that in certain cases" the lists of plants to be dismantled "ought to be revised to take into account the meagre advantage, or even the inadvisability, of transferring certain machines."

The announcement came less than 24 hours after Schuman had talked over the German industrial problem with Paul Hoffman, U. S. administrator of the European Recovery program.

Previously, France had been the chief objector to any move to abandon or curtail plans for cutting down Germany's industrial potential. She took the view that the dismantling program should proceed in order to keep Germany's war potential under control. Dismantled German plants should be shipped as reparations to other parts of Europe to obtain a better balanced continental economy, she argued. The French were particularly interested in building up their own industrial machine.

Just what arguments Hoffman used to overcome French objections were not known. Sources close to him, however, have reported his belief that keeping the factories in Germany at least temporarily would speed European recovery by making use of skilled German labor.

Two-Hour Rail Strike Called in Italy Today

ROME, Oct. 13 (AP)—The Communist-led General Confederation of Labor called today for a two-hour stoppage of rail service throughout Italy tomorrow to support a strike of 1,040,000 government workers for higher pay.

State employees are walking out for nine hours tomorrow to back their demand for wage raises that would amount to 133,000,000 lire ($3,000,000,000) annually.

Nation's First War Hero Laid to Rest at 'Home'

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 13 (AP)—Capt. Colin Kelly, who died a hero's death three days after Pearl Harbor, was given a hero's funeral today in this small town of his boyhood.

Capt. Kelly

And his eight-year-old son, Colin III, described to President Roosevelt as "a young American with a good heritage" was given the flag from his father's casket.

The younger Kelly, called "Corky" by his family, stood stiffly at attention when the stars and stripes were presented him by Capt. William E. Prantz of the 14th Air Force, Orlando.

"Corky, this flag is yours," said Prantz. "It's a small token of appreciation from a very grateful nation for the supreme sacrifice of your father."

Kelly went down in his plane, Dec. 10, 1941, after bombing the Japanese battleship Haruna. He had ordered his crew to parachute to safety.

His deed stirred the nation and he was proclaimed the first hero of the war with Japan. It was the personal commendation of

Veronica Lake Taken To Hospital for Child

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13 (AP)—Veronica Lake was taken to Good Samaritan hospital tonight to a waist of her third child in the midst of a money squabble with her mother.

The young blonde movie actress was taken to the hospital for observation, her physician said. Birth of the child is expected soon.

Her mother, Mrs. Constance Veronica Keane, earlier said Miss Lake "looked over off like an old shoe" after arriving in the Hollywood bag time.

'Special' Pupils Emerge as Useful Citizens Under Jackson School Advanced Methods

By EDITH M. SCHAEFFER
(Mercury Society Editor)

It was a golden October day and the year was 1928. A thin little chap with not even the slightest hint of a smile sat in a hard straight seat in a special school.

If he tried to follow any of the rather submerged suggestions his mind offered to him, he was immediately shouted at and told to get back to his seat.

He was miserable. As he buttoned his coat to button holes that did not match, he was screamed at again. "Can't you ever learn a simple thing like buttoning up your coat?"

But he was tossed out of the school, unable to cope with the world or earn a living. The years passed. It was again a golden October. The year was 1948. Another child sat in a special school. That is he sat when he was not busily engaged in some activity. He sat when he was not learning, under special guidance, to read, to do real arithmetic and to reach an academic level unbelievable to his father's teachers 20 years before.

IN THAT SHORT space of time, the special education came to know and learn that, after all, there was a place in the world for what is known today as slow learners.

Most especially has this been true of Pottstown's special school, the Jackson school. Until recent years it had been known only as a place to keep children, who were anything but pleasant, out of the way of "normal" youngsters.

No attempt whatsoever was made to teach them anything beyond scrubbing floors and working a bit with their hands. And why, even today, many persons still believe that all that is accomplished at the school is the caring of a few chairs and the washing of the wood-work.

This is far from the truth. The children are taught to use their hands, yes. They learn to cane chairs, to run the loom, to make woolen squares for blankets, etc. But that is only the recreational part of their learning.

THE POTTSTOWN SPECIAL SCHOOL is far in advance of similar schools in the State. The work done there by Mrs. Lucile Wade Williams and Mrs. Edward Fleming has received so much acclaim from the State department of special education that visitors from other schools in Allentown, Harrisburg, Stroudsburg, Philadelphia, Doylestown, Upper Merion and Chester have come weekly to study the methods and the "why" of the success.

Possibly the success of a school of this type starts with the teacher. She must be especially trained and have more than her share of mental alertness, physical durability, kindness and patience. She must understand that her children are special individuals. A quick child can easily compute an arithmetic problem in the abstract, but a slow learner must get the same problem by working with concrete objects.

Learning Is Fun and Fascination at the Jackson School

All of the boys pictured are adept at reading on their own level. Girl students in the Jackson building serve tea, coffee and dainties to a group of visitors that stopped in for the afternoon. The other photo shows three boys happily engaged in running a carpet loom, one of their many handicraft enterprises. One of the outstanding characteristics of the building is the happy smiles and contented existence.

Marguerite Xanthopoulos Is Lovely Bride Of Joseph Damsky in Double Ring Rites

A lovely wedding ceremony took place recently in the Holy Trinity Russian Orthodox church, when Miss Marguerite Xanthopoulos, 221 Wilkes-Barre, and Mr. Joseph Damsky, Kingston, were united in marriage.

Miss Xanthopoulos is the daughter of Mr. James Xanthopoulos, 221 King street, while Mr. Damsky is the son of Mrs. Mary Damsky, Kingston.

The double ring ceremony was performed by an uncle of the bride, the Rev. Joseph Xanthopoulos, of Springfield, Mass., who was assisted by the Rev. John Simeon, Reading, and the Rev. Joseph Mitasevich, rector of the Holy Trinity Russian Orthodox church.

Approaching the altar, which was decorated with chrysanthemums, pompons and carnations, the bride was attired in a white satin gown styled with a jewel neckline featuring a keyhole opening at the top, trimmed with seed pearls and crystals. The sleeves were long and tapered and a graceful peplum fell from the fitted bodice. A long train was the feature of the full skirt.

HER FINGERTIP length illusion veil was trimmed with lilies of the valley and white satin bows, which set off the halo crown of seed pearls and crystals. The bridal bouquet consisted of a spray of pompons and chrysanthemums with streamers. She was given in marriage by her father.

Acting as maid of honor was a cousin of the bride, Miss Irene Xanthopoulos, Springfield, Mass., who was attired in a pink marquisette and taffeta gown. The dress was styled with a marquisette fitted bodice, illusion jewel neckline and a full marquisette skirt over pink taffeta. On her head was a heart shaped crown and she carried a spray of pink pompons.

Miss Lillian Xanthopoulos, cousin of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and wore a blue taffeta and marquisette gown styled identical to the one worn by the maid of honor. She wore a gold heart shaped crown on her head and carried a bronze spray of pompons. Train bearer was Miss Cynthia Xanthopoulos, another cousin of the bride. She was attired in a pink nylon net gown with a shirred bodice and full skirt.

BEST MAN for the bridegroom was Mr. Joseph S. Joseph, while Mr. Eugene Lenahan was the usher. The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Damsky, was attired in a navy blue print dress with a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums.

A dinner was held following the ceremony at Howard Johnson's restaurant, and a reception followed at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. George Xanthopoulos, 1440 Cherry Lane.

When the couple left on a honeymoon to New York, the bride was attired in a forest green gabardine suit trimmed at the neckline and pockets with beaded designs, and black accessories. They will reside at 870 High street.

MRS. DAMSKY was graduated from the Myers High school, Wilkes-Barre, and prior to her marriage, was employed by the S. S. Kresge company, Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Damsky was graduated from the Kingston High school and is employed at Doehler-Jarvis company.

Guntick-Trojan Nuptials Take Place in Linfield

Miss Clare Trojan and Mr. Michael Guntick were united in marriage recently in St. Clair's Catholic church, Linfield, with the Rev. Joseph Conway, rector, officiating.

Miss Trojan is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Spieniak, Linfield. The bridegroom also resides in Linfield.

During the double ring ceremony organ music was supplied by Mrs. Betty Davis.

The bride was gowned in a traditional gown of white satin which ended in a long circular train. The front of the fitted bodice was outlined with pearls, while the leg-omment sleeves were pointed over each wrist. Her fingertip veil was attached to a heart-shaped crown designed with pearls to match her gown. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses centered with two orchids, and from which fell a shower of satin ribbons.

Her only attendant was the mother of honor, her sister, Mrs. Stella Haraevka, who appeared in a gown of peacock blue with square neckline and gathered bodice that ended in a bustle back. Her headpiece was heart-shaped and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of yellow roses.

The mother of the bride chose a black dress with matching accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Attending as best man was the brother of the bride, Mr. Francis Trojan.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served to guests attending from Collegeville, Phoenixville, Pottstown and Linfield. The couple will reside in Linfield.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

Honor Leads Pay Well
CONVENTIONS followed by all fine players, in the choice of honor leads from certain combinations against a No Trump contract, are a paying proposition in several respects. They not only enable the leader's partner to read his holding. They help the leader to get his suit established as soon as possible. They prevent the declarer from taking a cheap trick with a dinky little card while preserving his real stoppers for later use.

That was really an overbid hand, with North willing to "reverse" in bidding his hearts at the three level after showing his clubs before. But West made the 3-No Trumps a good contract by means of a bad lead. He selected his fourth-best diamond, the 7, when he should have chosen the J. By so doing he presented the contract to South.

Getting that first trick with the dummy's 9, South led the spade Q, which East allowed to win then the 10 to the J and the K to the A. East returned the 8 of his partner's diamonds, the Q forcing the A. When the diamond return was won by the K, South proceeded to make an easy game, totaling four tricks in spades, two each in the red suits and one in clubs.

West had a standard "honor combination" lead available to him in the top of his inside sequence. If he had led the J, he would have eliminated one of South's honors. The latter would then have had to try spades and hope West had the A. When East did instead, he could have returned a diamond through the remaining South honor.

7 Lettermen to Start For Phantoms Here

Phoenixville High will field a team with seven lettermen against Pottstown High in the annual Phantom-Trojan grid tussle Saturday afternoon on Franklin Field.

Three of the lettermen hold down starting positions in the line and the other four monogram winners make up the Phantoms' backfield.

These six lettermen all saw action a year ago on Phoenixville's Washington Field when the Trojans held a favored Phantom team to a 7-7 deadlock.

The Phantom backfield consists of Frank Ujohai at quarterback, Joe Ujohai and Hal Buckwalter at halfbacks and Danny Scaringi at fullback. Joe Ujohai gave the Trojans plenty of trouble on the gridiron the past two seasons despite the fact that the Phantoms don't win either of the games.

THE PHANTOM halfback is a shifty runner and is known throughout Chester county for his broken field scampering. Ujohai scored the touchdown that gave Phoenixville a 7-7 tie with the Trojans the past year.

Buckwalter and Scaringi do most of the line bucking for the Phantoms. Scaringi is new in the backfield, having played two years at guard for the Phantoms. He was switched to the backfield when Coach Johnny Huoscsak found himself in a hole without much backfield talent when pre-season practice started.

The Phoenixville line centers on three lettermen, Johnny Bilyk, Bob Balough and Joe Zabicki. Balough is the only one of the three monogram winners at his regular position. He is a tackle.

Bilyk was the regular center for the Phantoms the past year, but Huoscsak was forced to switch him to an end post Joe Zabicki played.

and a year ago but he is now holding down a tackle berth.

ED KRAYNAK, Bill Kronmuller, Joe Karpinski and Jack Reifsnuer give the Phantoms added strength in the forward wall. The Phantom line's average is 160 pounds while the backfield average is 150 pounds.

The Phantoms will come to Pottstown Saturday with a record of two wins and one loss. They opened the season with a 26-13 conquest of Howard High of Wilmington, Del., but lost to West Chester a week later, 13-6. Downingtown fell under the Phantoms the past Saturday, 21-0.

Phoenixville run from the "T" formation and the single wing, and into the latter formation for its lower end runs which caused Pottstown plenty of trouble in past years.

THE POTTSTOWN - PHOENIXVILLE series started back in 1905 with the two teams battling to a scoreless deadlock. Then Pottstown won six games in succession from the Phantoms before Phoenixville turned the trick and won, 19-0, in 1919.

Since 1905, the Phantoms and Trojans have met 35 times on the gridiron. Of those 35 games, Phoenixville has won 19 and the Trojans have won 10. Five games have ended in scoreless ties and the past year's 7-7 deadlock made it six ties.

Phoenixville's longest winning streak over the Trojans stretched from 1928 to 1944. During those 16 years Phoenixville won 12 games and four tussles ended in scoreless ties.

POTTSTOWN ENDED the Phantoms' winning streak with a 20-0 conquest on Franklin Field in 1944. Saturday will be Alumni Homecoming Day in Pottstown.

Big Steve Returns to Action

Big Steve Sabo, West Pottsgrove fullback, returned to action yesterday after a two weeks' absence because of a knee injury. Sabo was injured in the first game of the season. He spent most of the afternoon limbering up his passing arm as Coach Bill Gohean stressed passing offense for the Falcons yesterday. Sabo is expected to start against Pennsburg Saturday.

Sabo Back in Falcon Lineup After Nursing Injured Knee

Prospects of an Upper Montco league championship at West Pottsgrove High became brighter yesterday afternoon when Steve Sabo, big fullback, returned to action after nursing an injured knee for the past two weeks.

Sabo was injured in the Falcons' opening game with West Reading and West Pottsgrove faltered badly in its next two games, losing to Spring City and Marple-Newtown. Joe Curi, West Pottsgrove quarterback, was also injured in the West Reading game, but he returned to the Falcon lineup in the Marple-Newtown game the past week.

ALL EYES were on Sabo yesterday as he tested his knee for the first time. The big fullback complained of a little pain when he first applied pressure on his leg, but as time went on Sabo said his knee bothered him less. Coach Bill Gohean didn't run Sabo too much yesterday, but had him limbering up his passing arm which the Falcons needed in their last two games. Sabo will start heavier workouts today and Gohean said yesterday that he expects the big fullback to start against Pennsburg Saturday in the Falcons' first Upper Montco league tussle of the season.

NORTHWESTERN CAPTAIN VOTED BEST LINEMAN

Alex Sarkisian Picked By AP Scribes in First Weekly Poll

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 (AP)—Alex Sarkisian, a 59-minute center in Northwestern's 56 victory over Minnesota today, was voted Football Captain of the Week in the first of a series of weekly Associated Press polls.

Captain of the Northwestern team that faces the Michigan powerhouse at Ann Arbor Saturday, Sarkisian was one of 29 linemen who drew votes for outstanding work.

The 255-pound senior played a major role in Northwestern's triumph over the previously unbeaten United College. The Wildcats now have won three in a row as they head into a violent collision with Michigan.

SARKISIAN MAY have a battle on his hands to outshine Michigan's center Dan Dvorshy, who also drew support in the AP poll.

Chief Beermann, Pennsylvania's All-America center of the past year, was voted one of his five play in the Quakers' 29-7 success against Princeton.

Other centers who were complimented with votes were Dick Harris of Texas, John Pernik of Cornell's line which pushed Harvard around the field, Dick Woodward of Iowa's upset winners over Ohio State and Bob Fuchs of Missouri.

READING ARMORY OPENS DOORS TO BOXING SHOWS

Indoor Season Starts Tomorrow Night; Brewer Faces Eddie Holloway

READING, Oct. 13.—Professional boxing returns to Reading tonight with Joe Brewer, undefeated Philadelphia "featherweight," facing Eddie Holloway, also of the Quaker City, in the eight-round feature bout.

In another eight-rounder, Emmet "Kid" Norris, pulverizing puncher from Harrisburg, takes on Bob Phillips, of Philadelphia. A quartet of four-rounders will round out the program.

Charley Hoxley, Chester, battles Harrisburg's Ray Haas, Bruce Walters, Williamsport, exchanges leather with Tim Lawrence, Chester. Reading's own Dick Stern faces Johnny Regan, Philadelphia, and Kenry Prymire, Williamsport, makes his debut against Wally Nicklaus, Philadelphia, in the supporting roles.

OF BREWERS 13 fights as a pro, 12 have been fought in Reading. Five of his bouts have ended in knockouts, six in decisions and one was a draw with Patsy Gall.

Holloway, an experienced boxer, recently went six rounds to a draw with Eddie Goodman in Philadelphia. Holloway is managed by Dr. Michael Primiano, who brought Billy Arnold into the ring a few years ago.

Norris is one of the most popular fighters ever to appear here despite his two losses to Brewer.

Stengel Names Jim Turner As One of Yankee Coaches

Cuyler Replaces Baker As Boston Sox Coach

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 (AP)—Jim "Muleman" Turner, manager of the Portland club in the Pacific Coast league for the past two seasons, was named today as a coach of the New York Yankees under their new manager, Casey Stengel.

Turner will replace John Corridon on the Yankee coaching staff. No announcement was made concerning the status of Charley Dressen, John Schulte and Frank Crosetti, the other Yankee coaches who served under Bucky Harris, recently dismissed as Yankee pilot.

Turner, a "veteran rookie" when he first broke into major league baseball in 1937, is 44 years old. He pitched for the Boston Braves when Stengel managed that club in 1938 and 1939 and for the Yankees from 1942 to 1945, serving principally as a relief pitcher.

After 12 seasons of minor league hurling, Turner finally reached the majors in 1937 when he joined with Lou Pette to form the Braves' "two-man" pitching staff. He won 20 games and lost 11 that season and remained with Boston until 1940 when he went to the Cincinnati Reds. He appeared in one game of the 1940 World Series for Cincinnati.

Reader Report Heard By Library Board

A total of 2064 books went out to readers during the past month, according to a report made to the board of the Pottstown Library Tuesday night.

That number included 2063 books for adult readers and 801 to juveniles.

Nine hundred and twenty readers used the library during the month and 42 new readers, including 20 adults, were registered.

Gifts were acknowledged from Mrs. C. C. Burdett and from Thomas Leach.

John McCabe, board treasurer, reported that the library's budget had been accepted by the budget committee of the Pottstown Community Chest.

A new polishing machine has been purchased, it was reported, to care for the cork composition floor put down during the past summer.

Charles J. Custer, board president, was in charge of the meeting.

Two Motorists Injured In Limerick Accident

Two persons were injured on Monday morning when a car driven by Robert N. Ziegler, Collegeville Rd. 1, crashed into the rear of a car driven by Paul Dadey, Willow Grove.

According to State police of the Collegeville sub-station, both drivers were traveling east on Route 422. Ziegler's car smashed into the rear of Dadey's vehicle at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Jessie M. Dadey, Willow Grove, was taken to Memorial hospital where she was treated by Dr. Harold McLaren for cerebral contusions and a possible fracture of the skull.

Ziegler was taken to his home by a passing motorist. He suffered lacerations of the forehead and knees.

gym and at the pool from 3:30 to 10 p. m. every weekday.

Shellenberger, married and the father of a nine-year-old daughter, was graduated from Pottstown High school, where he played football, in 1934.

Four years later he was awarded his B.S. physical education from West Chester State Teachers college. He is a Sunday school teacher at St. John's Reformed church.

THE NEW DIRECTOR will replace Donald P. Goodnow, who resigned recently to become director of boys' work.

The meeting of 13 of the board's 23 members, convening at the Brookside Country club, also approved repairing five pool tables at a cost of $385.

The tables will be recovered, will receive new cushions and they will be leveled.

The board also voted to place a ping-pong table in the men's department.

SMITH, ALSO chairman of the committee on repairs and alterations, said his group will make a report at next month's meeting.

The board decided to meet every third Wednesday of the month instead of the second Wednesday.

The members agreed to join the Community Chest parade on Oct. 25. Present, besides Smith, were William W. Manship, chairman; Elmer E. Saylor, Charles J. Custer, Thomas A. McCaslin 3d, Victor J. Roberts, Jacob R. Satter, Dr. James W. Armstrong, Earl S. Levenson, George M. Lonzaker, Harold Glenney, William A. Shaner and Donald L. Rizy.

Also present was James F. Baird, executive secretary.

SEWER COSTS —

residents for a partial payment of $2 a foot for property owners.

LAST NIGHT, when the Pottstown men proposed that the Stowe commissioners collect the remainder of the bill, the commissioners were startled.

They pointed out that since Pottstown had begun the collections, it should finish them.

Allen K. Davidheiser, a member of Gerald J. Daly's highway and sewer committee, agreed, and summed up:

"It was the responsibility of you fellows from Stowe to collect in the first place. But since Pottstown began the job, it's our moral obligation to finish it, although it's your legal responsibility to pay your share of the bill."

Peter Dori, president of the West Pottsgrove commission, pointed out that some residents along Glasgow street misunderstood the partial payment, believing that when they had paid $2 for each foot of sewer line along their property, they had paid all they would be asked.

"It will be much easier for you fellows to collect that bill," he declared, as his fellow-commissioners nodded in agreement.

THE APPROXIMATE cost of the sewer line is $4 a foot for property owners.

Those in Stowe, however, will have to pay only up to $3.50 a foot, since the township has agreed to foot the remainder of the bill.

No similar arrangement was made in Pottstown, so the residents here who have the new sewer facilities will have to pay the full assessment.

During the 60 days that Pottstown is sending out bills, the West Pottsgrove commissioners will have an opportunity to study the detailed bills of the sewer line project, as they requested last night at the meeting in borough council chambers.

WHEN THE FIVE West Pottsgrove commissioners filed from the meeting room, Daly held a brief committee meeting.

Members asked for repairs on streets in their backyards, and a new list of desired street lights was submitted to Daly.

Daly's full committee was present, including William Romich, William B. Twardell, C. Raymond Eppheimer, William F. Lamb St., George P. Ruyak and Davidheiser.

Other Pottstown officials included Burgess William A. Griffith, Borough Engineer George F. Shaner and Sears.

In addition to Dori, the West Pottsgrove commissioners were Russell P. Yost, secretary, and Robert E. Frech, Daniel A. Antrim and Elmer E. Hamilton.

Candidates to Address Democratic Rally Tonight

At least two candidates seeking election, Nov. 2, will speak at the Democratic rally in Forrester's hall, King and Charlotte streets, at 8 o'clock tonight.

They will be Harry H. Kelly, of Ambler, candidate for election to Congress, and Mary Douly, of Cheltenham, who is seeking election to the State legislature from the Third Montgomery county district.

Another speaker will be Owen Hunt, of Philadelphia, former State insurance commissioner under the George H. Earle administration.

The rally is sponsored by the Pottstown Democratic club.

Sears Discusses Airport At Minute Men Meeting

Borough Manager Dow I. Sears yesterday outlined the background and financing of the Pottstown Municipal airport at a noon meeting of the Minute Men of the Pottstown Chapter of Commerce.

Sears spoke to the group in the Howard Johnson restaurant.

He stressed that the borough must act on the airport to receive $72,000 in State and Federal funds if it does not want to find that it owns only a comparatively useless piece of real estate.
